Outlook Good For U. S.: Say Industrialists

Steel and Rubber Leaders United in Optimistic Opinion

Leaders of two basic industries — steel and rubber — who spent three days this week at Firecliff Lodge at Palm Desert, were more than optimistic about future business conditions in this country.

Benjamin Fairless, president of the U. S. Steel corporation whose production of steel is considered a barometer of business conditions in the nation and possibly the world, said in his opinion there was nothing to indicate a major business recession in the near future.

SITTING BESIDE HIM was Leonard Firestone, of the Firestone Tire and Rubber company, who echoed Mr. Fairless' words insofar as his company was concerned.

The latter who has visited the desert on several occasions was amazed at the growth of Palm Desert which he remembered as a barren waste when he last visited the area.

Both Mr. and Mrs. Fairless just returned to this country from a six-week vacation in Hawaii. "As of this week," declared Fairless, "U. S. Steel is operating at between 70 and 80 per cent of capacity and this level is expected to be maintained for at least six months."

FIRESTONE SAID that tire production by major manufacturers was running at full capacity and he looked forward to business at the same pace for a considerable distance into the future.

The number of automobiles in this country two or more years old has reached an all time peak and replacement of tires for these vehicles is now taking place. Business from this source will be excellent for some time to come.

As a result Firestone said, the sale of new tires is expected to be good.

"I HAVE SPENT several vacations in and around Palm Springs," said Fairless, "and the growth of this desert vacation land is amazing."

Speaking of the proposed Mt. San Jacinto Winter Park tramway which he said he has watched with unusually keen interest Fairless said:

"When completed it will be one of the outstanding tourist attractions in the nation and should certainly do much for this area."

James Mussati To Speak in City At C. of C. Rally

Monthly general membership luncheon of the Chamber of Commerce is scheduled for one week from today at Chi Chi with James Mussati, general manager of the Los Angeles chamber, as featured speaker. He will speak on "The Future Shadow of a State Program."

Also scheduled to receive the Citizen of the Month Award is Ernest Aischler for the month of February, postponed since he was out of town at time of the meeting that month. In his place, Carl Lykken was given the March award at that time for his Community Chest work.

Popularity Secret Bared

The formula for the success and popularity of a certain local salesman was revealed recently.

This salesman never uses that proverbial "foot-in-the-door" method. He is invited into each of the homes entered. This house-to-house salesman canvasses more homes each week than scores of others are able to do.

Perhaps this salesman's popularity can be attributed to the fact that he does not crave large commissions. He was contented, for instance, with his $1.40 commission for locating a buyer on an $1195 car.

No sale is too large—none too trivial—for this salesman to handle. Chances are you have bought through him, or even hired him. His name might be "Willie Want-ad" and he can be hired through the Desert Sun's classified department.

Day and Night Survey Taken For RFC Use

Check of Travel Into Village Will Influence Decision

Traffic count of the highways affecting Palm Springs and highways 99 and 111, was started Tuesday night at midnight.

The count is on a 24-hour basis to run for one week for data to be used by RFC in matter of governmental funds for the proposed tramway up Chino Canyon.

Earl Coffman, chairman of the Mt. San Jacinto Winter Park Authority, said yesterday that the first 24-hour tally on the car count showed that 6058 vehicles had gone by the two checking stations during that period.

Count is made near the intersection of 99 and 111, with one checker on each road.

THERE HAVE BEEN no developments from the RFC in Washington or any further word from Coverdale and Colpitts of New York. Developments with this engineering firm which will make its recommendations to RFC are awaiting data from the traffic count, Coffman said.

In the meantime, Coffman said the forestry service had acceded to the authority's request for a public hearing concerning the last right-of-way necessary for the project.

RIGHT-OF-WAY sought by the authority involves a relatively small area on a rugged mountainside along the tramway route. Two of nine towers and station sites would be erected on the steep slope. Acquisition of the permanent easement over this virtually inaccessible territory is the last undertaken by the authority. Other rights-of-ways have been previously obtained across lands owned by white residents, Indians, Southern Pacific and the state.

It is understood that the hearing will be conducted sometime in April, probably in Riverside.

Rasmussen Speaks At Ontario Sunday

Norman Rasmussen, Palm Springs high school student who won the American Legion county oratorical contest, will compete in the area contest at Ontario, Sunday. If he is again victor he will enter the state finals at Fresno, March 28.

The area contest includes high school oratory winners from Riverside, San Bernardino, Orange, San Diego and Imperial counties.

Bucs, Suds Clash Tomorrow

First Major League Team Coming Here

Tomorrow's game at the Polo Grounds between the Seattle Rainiers, now in spring training in the Village, and the Pirates of Pittsburgh, brings for the first time to this desert area big league baseball as the Suds from the coast league tangle with the famous eastern major league team.

Marking the fifth spring game of the Rainiers, during the past week, Manager Paul Richards has shown an improved team with each game so far and it is probable he will shoot his best shots in tomorrow's encounter.

THE PIRATES, National league team now in training at San Bernardino, will be the strongest competition to be met by the Emil Sick's Rainiers until the

CHAMPIONSHIP BANDS SEEK CIRCUS TROPHY

Competition in the Second Annual Bands exhibition of the Desert Circus on Saturday, March 25 will be exceptionally keen as championship bands are coming from several schools and communities of the southland, according to Gustave Patzner, chairman of the event.

In addition to the defending champions from the Pasadena City college, which band serves as the official Tournament of Roses unit, other outstanding bands will be here from Garden Grove Union high school, Corona high school, Redlands high school, Long Beach Youth band, Huntington Park Junior band, and the host band from Palm Springs Unified high school district.

Andre Stong, director of the defending champions from Pasadena, has given notice that his outfit will be here to take back with them the coveted trophy which was presented to the event last year by Ray Dodge, company executive, and named Palm Springs resident and trophy company executive, and named in honor of his popular wife, Ada.

However, the Bulldogs will have strong contenders in the Corona and Garden Grove bands which made excellent showings in other Southern California competitions this year.

All these bands and nearly 10 other bands and drum and bugle corps will march in the parade at 10 a. m., Saturday, March 25. The Bands Exhibition is set for 12:30 p. m., at the Arena of the Polo Grounds as a prelude to the Western Show which starts at 2:30 p. m. Winning team will be presented at the latter event.

Western Fashion Show and Barbecue Entertainment Top

Comprising an all-star cast of entertainers, a record-breaking Kangaroo Court session and a Marg Rife Western Fashion Show, arrangement for the big Western Barbecue and Fashion Show at the Tennis Club, Friday, March 24, were completed today by Trav Rogers, chairman of this event which will highlight the Desert Circus week.

The lawn and tennis courts of the club will be the setting for the big show which is expected to attract up to 800 guests for luncheon and more than 1000 spectators, the latter of whom will pay only the show admission price and occupy places of advantage in bleachers. Luncheon will be served at noon at tables set up on the tennis courts, and the Kangaroo Court, entertainment and fashion show will be presented between 1 and 4 p. m.

THROUGH CONTACTS in Hollywood, Chairman Rogers is obtaining stage, screen and radio stars to appear on the program. Frank Mueller, well-known visitor to Palm Springs and prominent California horseman, has accepted appointment as sheriff of the Kangaroo Court, and presiding over this unique institution will be Leo Fields, popular Villager and community worker who has filled this judicial role ever since the court was originated.

Red Cross Drive One-Third Along In First Report

Red Cross annual fund-raising drive started off briskly last Friday morning with a coffee and doughnut kickoff meeting at the Youth Center. Branch Chairman Warren Slaughter, in charge.

Chairman of the fund drive, Val Blatz, urged the workers to give as complete a canvass of the city in as short a time as possible since it is the hope of Village leaders that Palm Springs be first in the county to attain its quota, local amount necessary being $11,000.

It was announced yesterday by Frances Bigelow, in charge of the headquarters, that as of Tuesday evening more than one-third of the goal had been reached and prospects were hopeful of being first city in the county to reach the goal.

Two new chairmen were announced by Blatz for divisional work with Mrs. William Aiken in charge of doctor and dentist solicitations and Mrs. Keith Herbert in charge of hotel and apartment canvass.

Honorary chairman for this year is Paul Lukas and county fund raising chairman is Mary Ellen Pangle of Riverside, who explained the workings of the national organization. Police Chief August Kettmann also sounded a note of encouragement to the workers.

It is still necessary for more returns from the advance gifts solicitations to achieve the quota, it was announced at the meeting.

Gay Nineties Canceled

The Desert Inn announced today that due to circumstances beyond its control the Gay Nineties Ball, scheduled for tomorrow night, has been cancelled.

Drawings for New Hospital Completed

Final preliminary drawings for the proposed new hospital for the district are nearly completed through the joint work of the two local architectural firms, Williams, Williams and Williams, and Clark and Frey, and submission for state and federal approval will be made very shortly. Reason for governmental approval is said to be that in the future if aid from either agency is asked for the structure will conform and thereby facilitate assistance.

Bank of America In New Offices

Deluxe, luxurious new quarters of the Palm Springs branch, Bank of America, will be officially opened tomorrow afternoon 4-6 p. m. for inspection as the recently-completed edifice, last major addition to Colborn Center, commences its operation at the new address, 150 North Palm drive.

Manager Fred Ingram announced yesterday that there are many new features and conveniences for both patrons and employees such as an ample amount of safe deposit boxes, night depository, streamlined handling of the various types of bank services and even new lounges for employees.

Latest models of neon lighting have been used, beautiful modern design windows allow a maximum of daylight into the building, and the crowning feature is the placing of four huge colorful desert paintings on the walls. All were done by Artist Paul Grimm.

Auto Races, Poker, Publicity Before Coordinating Council

Meeting the Mayor's Coordinating council this week produced several discussions of interest to Villagers with 21 civic and city leaders gathered at the Racquet Club, Mayor Charles Farrell in charge.

Subjects threshed out by the group for report-back to the clubs and organizations they represent were features of the North End park, whether or not funds were still available for the park construction (assured by City Manager Russell Rink as being intact—all $210,000 of it) Village publicity channeling, Western Air Lines' summer flight schedule and draw poker as proposed by the Disabled American Veterans for benefit purposes.

GEORGE CAREY sounded out the group on the reactions of the

Abatement Suit Prepared by City Against Building

As the result of last week's long city council discussion regarding fate of Sunset House, unfinished apartment building at the corner of Palm Canyon drive and Via Loma, abatement proceedings are today being filed in superior court in Riverside to "either complete the building or tear it down."

Papers are being filed by City Attorney Roy Colegate on behalf of the city against Waale-Campbell and Smith, Inc., present owners, who as general contractors on the project were forced to take over the building in payment of construction costs.

Proceedings are filed on the grounds that the building is "a public nuisance and a hazard to public health, welfare and safety."

Building has been in its present unfinished state for approximately five years and is said to have become not only a community eyesore but an endangerment to children who are wont to play in the vicinity and on its framework.

Building was also said at council meeting to be a gathering place for winos and others as a place to drink and was described as containing a great many whiskey, wine and beer bottles plus attendant filth and rubbish.

by OLIVER B. JAYNES

TO OUR MANY SUBSCRIBERS throughout Southern California: For the most fun you have had in a long time—for a short vacation you'll long remember—plan now to come to Palm Springs for Desert Circus Week. Those who have attended the interesting and entertaining events of this famous community celebration know how much fun it is; those who come for the first time this year have an experience in store for them that they will long remember. There's nothing quite like Desert Circus Week in Palm Springs. Its variety of events open with the Circus Charity Ball on Tuesday, March 21st and features a thrill-packed day Saturday that includes a huge parade at 10 in the morning, a Western Show and Bands Exhibition at the new Polo Grounds in the afternoon—and the last performance of the Village Insanities show in the evening. The Western Barbecue and Fashion Show Friday noon is another one of the many colorful events that always attracts a throng. The Insanities show will be staged this year at the Plaza theater for three nights beginning Thursday. It's tops in entertainment—ask anyone who has seen one.

An exhibition golf match closes Desert Circus Week on Sunday.

So plan right now to get away from it all for a few days and come to Palm Springs for a joyful, healthful weekend in the sunshine and gaiety of this desert playground. The minute you enter the portal of this sun-drenched valley at the foot of snow-capped Mt. San Jacinto you'll forget your cares and start having a good time. You'll feel better too—and the carefree days you spend in Palm Springs will be the best investment you could make for mental relaxation and physical well being.

Argument Over Card Game Sends Two Into Hospital

An argument early Wednesday morning, said to have resulted from a previous card game, involved a foot-long butcher knife and three Filipinos, sending two of the latter to hospitals and the other to jail.

Fred Del Rosario, Fred Aglepay and Joe Batugo were said by the latter to have been in a card game earlier the same night and Del Rosario was said to have been drinking. Later, in Aglepay's car, an argument arose between Aglepay and Del Rosario over the latter's payment of a $20 loan. He is said then to have left the car and gone to a nearby hotel where he procured the knife. Returning to the car the argument continued and he is said to have reached across Batugo seated in the middle and slashed Aglepay in the neck. Aglepay is then said to have stopped the car and all alighted to the pavement with Batugo turning as he fled to see the other two in a struggle.

Aglepay was first found and taken to the Community hospital where he was treated for a severe neck wound that had severed his left carotid artery and made a gash into his esophagus. Yesterday afternoon, after one blood transfusion and two operations he was said to be in serious condition.

Del Rosario was found a short time after Aglepay and was taken to the county hospital at Riverside with serious stab wounds in the stomach and intestines. He was pronounced yesterday as being in serious condition, also. Before Judge Eugene Theriault yesterday afternoon Batugo was ordered held as a material witness on bail of $500 and Police Chief August Kettmann filed an assault charge against Del Rosario. The chief said preliminary hearing on the case will depend on the outcome of the physical condition of the two injured men.

Last Rites Said For M. V. Wilson

Last rites were said this week at Helena, Montana, and a memorial service at St. Paul's in the Desert Episcopal church, here, for Myron V. Wilson, long time resident of the Village who succumbed suddenly Monday noon at the age of 79.

Mr. Wilson, who first came here in 1930, was the victim of a heart attack in the garden of his home.

He and Mrs. Wilson have occupied their winter home on Occotillo road for the past 20 years. A son, Myron Jr., arrived here to take charge of arrangements. Mr. Wilson is also survived by his wife and a daughter.

He was prominent in civic and church affairs and was vestryman at St. Paul's for many years.

Interment was in Helena.

Accent on Youth Pleasing Audiences at Tenthouse

Accent on Youth, current Tenthouse theatre presentation, is proving to be one of the most popular offerings yet shown by Producer H. M. Rogers who says that some of his best "repeat" customers are members of the Seattle Rainiers.

Next week's show will be Hay Fever by Noel Coward, a story of a neurotic family and the problems arising when each member brings his or her own guest home for the weekend.

ed. Likewise, the Circus has again enlisted the capable help of Helen Lindsay Kenaston as chief clerk.

Sheriff Mueller, Judge Fields, Chairman Rogers and Circus Chairman Ken Kirk will meet with the corps of pretty deputy sheriffs for luncheon early next week to map their attack upon the "offenders" to be hailed before the colorful court which is one of the chief sources of charity funds for the annual Circus event. The deputies will include many who have served in this capacity for several years plus several additions of outstanding girls.

MARG RILEY, creator of noted western gear, has been planning for the fashion show here for several weeks and will present here outfits never before shown. For several years her western wear creations have set the pace for Southern California and the nation as well. Palm Springs' loveliest girls will model the Riley creations, walking along a ramp to be constructed between tables on the tennis courts at the club.

Western atmosphere will be added to Tennis Club grounds by Chairman Rogers through the use of stage coaches, wagon wheels and other accoutrements of western ranches.

One Cent Enough On Post Cards

Here's one place where the cost of living has not gone up—but a lot of people are paying twice what they should, just the same.

R. M. Gorham, postmaster, this week called attention to the fact that the rate on post cards is still one cent. That applies to single view picture cards of the same size, he said.

Many people are under the belief that the rate has gone to two cents, he said, and are paying double what they should.

Youth Center to Sell Golf Tourney Tickets

Admission tickets and food concessions for the 15th Annual Invitational Golf tournament at the O'Donnell course starting Sunday will again be under the sponsorship of the Youth Center.

Staffing the two operations will be members of the Welfare and Friendly Aid society under the joint supervision of Mrs. Barney Hinkle of the society and Mrs. Harold Hicks of the Youth Center.

Attendance Mark Set at Museum

Attendance at the Desert Museum during the month of February of 6258 exceeds by some 40 persons the previous all-time high in attendance reached last November, and surpassed by over 1000 the attendance for the same month last year. This total included visitors to the museum, and participation in the various field trips, lectures and programs. Of February's total, over 900 were children.

Among visitors last month were guests from Montreal and Vancouver, Canada; Anchorage and Fairbanks, Alaska; and Hawaii.

Jamboree Climax to Circus Being Prepared by Hough

Plans are being completed this week by Earl Hough, chairman of the Plaza Fiesta and Frolic event of the 14th Annual Desert Circus, forecast one of the largest "jamboree" events ever staged in the Village, according to Circus Chairman Kenneth Kirk.

Plans for the event, which will provide a companion event for the closing night of the Village Insanities which is being produced in the Plaza theater.

SALE OF TICKETS FOR ALL CIRCUS EVENTS OPEN

Public sale of all tickets of admission to events of the Desert Circus, March 21 to 26, started at a Circus booth downtown Wednesday.

Hundreds of good seats for the Desert Insanities will go on sale at the booth for all three nights of the outstanding show, March 23, 24 and 25.

On the opening night there will be a special family night price in order to encourage more townspeople to inaugurate the three night stand of the famed production which again is being presented under direction of Mrs. Melba Bennett.

A last-minute change of program has canceled the opening luncheon and Kangaroo Court at the Desert Inn set for Thursday, March 23, but the Western Barbecue, Fashion Show and Kangaroo Court to be staged the following day, March 24, at the Tennis Club under direction of Trav Rogers, will be even "bigger and better."

Tickets also will be on sale at the booth for the Parade Grandstand, Saturday morning, March 25; the Western Show and Bands Exhibition, Saturday afternoon, and the Plaza Fiesta and Frolic that night at the Plaza.

Golden Stampede Scheduled at AC

Golden stampede, first big-time spring of general public interest to be sponsored by the Palm Springs Athletic club, is set for a big time, according to President Bill Goodridge Jr. All types of entertainment has been arranged for the affair and it is expected the clubhouse will be packed. Event falls on Saturday, March 18.

Insanities Preserving That Professional Touch 100%

By MELBA HENDERSON

Much of the Village Insanities might verge on the slapstick were not the professional touch maintained in all departments at all times, and not the least of these by any means is the make-up department. Many a good show, with excellent staging and costumes, has had the effect spoiled by poor make-up jobs on the cast, the tendency always being to overdo instead of under do. Nothing looks more ridiculous than too red cheeks and lips on a man. This is where the Insanities is again most fortunate as they not only have the advice but the actual job taken care of by a gal who really knows the business backwards and forwards. Dorothy Snyder has been in charge of the make-up department for the Insanities for three years now but before coming to Palm Springs, she was with the studios for twenty years. She was particularly pleased when she did her first show here, to encounter Mary Jane Hicks whom she's made up several times on the Universal lot. For the performances, Dorothy calls down from Hollywood to help her, some of her friends in the business, Jack Pierce, head of make-up at Universal and Dorothy's boss for ten years, is one who answers her cry. Jack was the genius who created Frankenstein's face, now look what he's doing for Strebe, Hicks, Purcell, Nichols and Paul.

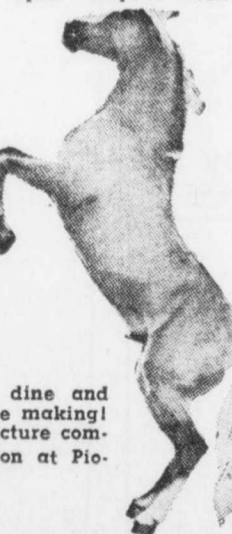

ONCE IN AWHILE comes the revolution, however, when the kids back stage get a little longing for some of that glamour that flits nightly before their eyes. Luckily enough this feeling takes a while to develop, it simmers slowly and doesn't reach a boil till the final night, and final curtain. Then anything might happen and usually does. Two years ago, all the gals in the make-up and wardrobe rooms swept into the cast party with such an array of sweeping false eyelashes that the draft nearly drove everyone out the door. Maryedna Borden had to go without tasting the buffet, as every time she'd get a fork near her mouth, the eyelashes would brush the food to the floor. Then of course last year, the back stage Vanguard not only got into the make-up, they donned the costumes as well and staged their own show. This is where a stop had to be put to all such frivolity. The kids proved to be so good that Melba realized they would want nothing but the footlights come another year and top billing at that and where would a show be without costumes, make-up and stage setting and props. Business is business and the show must go on.

BESIDES the professionals back stage, Dorothy also relies on willing Village workers. Tess Myers is one of the regulars at this job. It's interesting to know that a mixed crew is essential. The artists do the faces but when it comes to body make-up, protocol and regulations state that men must make up the men and women do the women. When you see all the fascinating pots of this and that, the lipstick and eye shadow, etc., it looks mighty fascinating and fun and it is too. But the gals and guys who give of their time back stage have no glory connected with their jobs, they don't receive curtain calls, and the hardest of all to take is that they don't get to see the show except for brief snatches picked up at rehearsals or glimpses from behind the wings. One incentive however, is that everyone is so nice to work with, there is no such thing as artistic temperament and the cast members realize that they are in expert hands, that those working on them know, so much better than they, what will look best on them. Dorothy Snyder claims that she never worked with a studio set that went more smoothly.

Famous Sheriff's Posse to March

The famous Los Angeles County Sheriff's Posse, one of the outstanding silver-mounted group in the West, will be one of several noted Southern California posses and riding groups participating in the 14th Annual Desert Circus Parade on Saturday morning, March 25, according to word received by Parade Chairman Anthony Burke.

Comprising approximately 40 members, the Los Angeles County group is exceptionally colorful and is in demand for parades and civic events throughout the Southland.

In the absence of Sheriff Eugene Biscailuz, who has sent his regrets at being unable to be present for the parade, the posse will be led by Von D. Parker, captain. Other officers of the group are Carl L. Alleborn, first lieutenant; Robert Dalton, second lieutenant, and Lieut. C. C. Riley, secretary-treasurer. The governing board consists of the following: Victor H. York, chairman; Marvin Whiteman, William Abenathy, John Wilks and Warren Tate, with Secretary Riley.

Entries are arriving daily from posses and riding clubs from many cities. Chairman Burke expects nearly 15 of these colorfully-garbed outfits and working units.

Likewise, entries are arriving daily from firms entering floats, bands and organizations. A total entry list of more than 100 is expected.

Personality Class Meets Thursdays At Adult School

Invitations was issued this week by Paul Summit, director of Guidance and Child Welfare department at the high school, to the public to join one of the most interesting classes being offered in the evening courses—that of self improvement.

Every phase in development of an attractive personality is combined in the course which meets each Thursday evening at 7-10 p.m. at Frances Stevens school.

Course is named "The Business of Life" and consists of panel discussions and open forums.

City Just Wants Good Air Service

By a resolution adopted by council last week, Civil Aeronautics Board at Washington will be informed of city views on the matter of airplane service to the Village.

Served at the present time by Western Air Lines, applications are also filed with CAB by Los Angeles Airways and Southwest Airways.

Council feelings on the subject were that no particular company should be boosted for the franchise and whichever arrangement will best serve Palm Springs is the one desired.

City Manager Russell Rink was

Villagers' Views

The Village Murphys in Mexico

Here we are back on the Pacific Coast, but somewhat to the south of good ole So. California.

We had a grand drive down to Mexico City from Laredo, Texas, stopping one night at Volles. That night it seemed like all the dogs were on a hunt, all the birds of the tropical jungle were talking to one another and all the trains were whistling. Oh, for the quiet of Palm Springs!

Since we drove down in 1941, this highway has become a most busy trucking and bus route. Its countryside has undergone great changes, proving that progress despite people (as the folks of P. S. should know). In '41 this route was through jungle, but now its sides are flanked by grove after grove of oranges and field after field of sugar cane, corn and other agricultural products.

With the coming of this development the natives and Indians graduated from foot travel to ride burros and buses, dressed in the fashions of Sears instead of "C" strings.

So much for the folks along the Pan American Highway. Now for Mexico City. It's interesting and sports a couple new large hotels with several in the building stage, but even their addition will fail to meet the demand of the increasing number of American tourists. Rooms are at a premium for a couple months to come.

The midwest, Minnesota, Wisconsin, Illinois and Michigan seems to be great patrons to judge auto licenses and not to check plane arrivals. Palm Springs is losing a lot by not going after this tourist trade—there's a lot of it and they seem to still have the price of travel.

The night clubs, the bull fights, etc., are packing 'em in. The "Riverroll" is novel entertainment. It is a colorful presentation of the native dances of the various states which form Mexico. These interesting dances of each state are in the picturesque native costume of that state. It is well worth seeing.

We have been in Cuernavaca, Mexico, the heart of the Mexican silver mining and manufacturing industry, stayed a couple of days at the old famous Hacienda de la Vista Hermosa. It was a beautiful place about 10 miles off the highway between Cuernavaca and Taxco. The swimming pool was about four times the size of the largest in Palm Springs; the corridors were almost as wide as P. S. streets, of beautiful tile. Oh, if P. S. had a hotel like it!

And of course Acapulco. It's all everyone says it is and then some. It's gorgeous. It's romantic, it's entertaining! It has big hotels, yet not enough of them, although more than P. S. Its bay is a mirror of glass and all around its shores is reflected the charm and quaintness that is Acapulco; on it speed boats flash between the beautiful yachts, sail boats and Mexican gunboats followed by their trail-water skiing enthusiasts.

The bay is a picture in day or night. And every morning about 8 the little fishing boats head out from the wharf for about 15 miles at sea, returning about 3 or 4 p.m. with their catch of sailfish, tuna or dolphin. Spectators line the wharf to see the boats come in and watch the taking of pictures as the tourist stands beside his or her great sailfish, pole in hand for the proof of a great fish story. The Murphys were among them. Harold has been out twice and each time landed a sailfish between 8 and 9 feet long. I have been out once and got the thrill of a lifetime landing an 8-ft. 7-in. sailfish. Got so excited when it took my hook that before I could get down to the job of bringing the fish in he had headed for the middle of the Pacific. When I finally put the brake on his sailing he was 1 1/2 blocks away from the boat and as he leaped up in the air several times trying to get rid of the hook, he was magnificent. It's really a thrill and, of course, that helps to make Acapulco a tourist mecca.

Hadn't realized that this has grown into a book, so will say, so long with love.

Local Artist In Mexico City

You may be interested in the following since I am a resident of long standing in Palm Springs. I am having an exhibition of my paintings in the "Circulo de Bellas Artes de Mexico" in Mexico City. The exhibition will open June 8th and continue until June 27th. The subjects that I will exhibit will be in accord with Mexican life, silver workers, field workers, fiesta scenes, religious scenes, social endeavors, music which is the heart of the Mexican people, and portraits. There will be about 25 paintings in all.

At the same time that my exhibition opens my book will be out. It is titled: "Earth and the Marble," the title being inspired by Mexico. "Earth and the Marble" will be published in both English and Spanish, the English editions will be sent to New York and California and the Spanish editions will, naturally, be kept in Mexico. Translation of "Earth and the Marble" is "Terre y el Marmol." The book deals with an artist's impressions of life in general, it contains technical information for artists and in general should be of interest to art students and artists in all phases of the arts. It is on the order of a journal but cannot be classed as such.

Trying Times

This is the portion of the season that tries Villagers' souls and in spite of the pressure everyone is undergoing these days I think it would be a good idea if everyone could possibly do so to sit down for a few minutes each day just to relax and give the jangled nerves a rest.

It is the annual portion of the winter season that might be termed ulcer-inspiring, and about the best suggestion I can think of to counteract the threat of the "war-nerves" is for everyone to take it upon himself to conduct his own Smile Anyway Week.

Just a tip for a more gracious and companionable living. XYZ again.

Walter E. Eastlack of Santa Barbara announced that he will open the beautiful new El Paseo Pharmacy on March 15.

Mr. and Mrs. George Heigho have purchased through E. L. Taylor, an entire block in Palm Springs Estates and plan to start immediate construction of a home.

Miss Marie Greyhouse of the local school staff is taking pupils in art daily at her El Paseo studio.

Work on the operetta "Blue Boy" is proceeding nicely under direction of Miss Florence Newberry.

Jack Williams, new member of the school board, is giving his personal attention to considerable planting being done on the school grounds.

Fifth and sixth grade pupils were entertained at a picnic in Tahquitz canyon as reward for picking the most outgrowth weed vines in the contest staged here to rid the city of the pest.

An old outlaw mountain sheep ram has been seen several times in Palm Canyon this season. The old buck has been banished from the flock by the younger and more progressive bucks and consequently he is forced to spend his declining years in exile.

Streams are rising steadily in Palm, Murray and Andreas canyons as result of heavy recent rains.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Fowler are visiting with Mrs. Fowler's mother, Mrs. Cynthia Bunker.

Palm Springs Associates are getting results from their advertising and publicity campaign. It was reported at last night's board meeting. Present were A. V. Hicks, S. Gehr, Carl Lykken, Charles Bosworth, M. I. Hannahs, John Coble and Anthony Burke.

A new and somewhat original project is under way in Palm Springs to further art appreciation as a cultural movement among local and visiting art lovers. Among those interested are Dr. J. Kocher, Anthony Burke and A. Katchamkoff.

YALTA AGREEMENT

When President Roosevelt returned after his conference with Stalin and Churchill at Yalta, he addressed a joint session of the Congress in March 1945. Senators and Representatives will not soon forget his statement: "There were no secret agreements at Yalta."

Today, the sordid details of the secret agreement consummated at Yalta are in the open, an agreement which placed Russia in a strategic position to take over all of China, which is an accomplished fact, today. Also, in the open—and the people will never forget—is the fact that Alger Hiss, the convicted Communist sympathizer, was Mr. Roosevelt's adviser at Yalta.

The following is a copy of the Yalta agreement, published in the Congressional Record, February 21, 1950, Page A 1350:

"THE LEADERS of the three great powers—the Soviet Union, the United States of America, and Great Britain—have agreed that in 2 or 3 months after Germany has surrendered and the war in Europe has terminated, the Soviet Union shall enter into the war against Japan on the side of the Allies on condition that:

1. The status quo in Outer Mongolia (the Mongolian People's Republic) shall be preserved.

2. The former rights of Russia violated by the treacherous attack of Japan in 1904 shall be restored, viz:

a. The southern part of Sakhalin, as well as all the islands adjacent to it, SHALL BE RETURNED TO THE SOVIET UNION.

a. The southern part of Sakhalin, as well as all the islands adjacent to it, SHALL BE RETURNED TO THE SOVIET UNION.

b. The commercial port of Dairen shall be international.

Tickets for Luau? Yes Sir!

Mr. and Mrs. Mel Eaton, Thunderbird Ranch guests, take a block of tickets for the Hawaiian Luau to be staged at El Mirador this Tuesday night.

The affair is Palm Springs' first big, authentic Luau and it is hoped to make the colorful South Sea Island dinner an annual event in future seasons.

The Luau is being sponsored by Los Compadres and put on by Ed Landfield of the Ball-Bali, with both food and flowers arriving by United Air from Hawaii for the Tahitian fiesta.

Mr. and Mrs. Eaton have been winter guests for many seasons. He is the president of the Norwich Pharmaceutical Corp. (Ungentine et al) and an active political leader in the East.

El Mirador to Sparkle At Gay Luau

Anticipation mounted this week in the winter colony for what promises to be the party-of-the-year; the Hawaiian Luau to be held at El Mirador Hotel Tuesday night, March 14. It's going to be a colorful, glamorous South Sea Island spectacle with an authentic Hawaiian Luau served in the traditional manner. There will be suckling pigs on the bill of fare—lau-lau baked in ti leaves which are to be flown over by United Air from Honolulu—all manner of Tahitian and Polynesian delicacies such as are not to be found except at the big Luau.

Entertainment includes Samoan, Tahitian and Hawaiian dancers, singers and musicians. The whole affair is planned and executed by an expert in South Sea Island entertainment and hospitality, Ed Landfield of the Ball-Bali, who is going all out on the party in behalf of Los Compadres who are sponsoring the event. Incidentally, it will be the LAST event to be held at the famed El Mirador, prior to its sale to the highest bidder on March 22.

Tickets for the Luau must be secured in advance and are for sale by Los Compadres and various hotels as well as the Ball-Bali.

Rancho Trailer Park Opens New Hall With Party

The new Recreation Hall at the Rancho Trailer Park, was opened Tuesday evening, March 7, when 250 people sat down and enjoyed a pot luck supper with a program following.

During the dinner hour Robert Alter on the violin, accompanied on the piano by Bert Marquart, entertained with dinner music followed by community singing. "The Rancho Boys," a men's chorus composed of Carl Klein, Ray Morgan, Will Mills, Lee Strohle, Duke Blezard, Ward Strickland, Cecil Kitchin and Bill Veith, gave a rendition of popular music.

News items with jokes and original poems were presented by Wilson Hall and Mrs. Bill Veith. Mr. and Mrs. Ward L. Strickland appeared in costume singing several numbers with guitar accompaniment. They also gave a duet on a guitar.

Miss Fanchon Masters presented three delightful readings.

After the program the balance of evening was spent in old fashioned and square dancing.

Judge Therieau Is Honored at Birthday Party

City Judge Eugene Therieau was the birthday boy Tuesday night when Mrs. Therieau entertained in his honor with a small cocktail and dinner at their home on Santa Catalina.

Guests blowing out candles and sharing the birthday cake included Mr. and Mrs. Sam Stuart, Mr. and Mrs. M. D. Fritz, Mrs. Ada Alfred.

Ruskins Host Indian Curry Dinner Party

Mr. and Mrs. H. F. Johnson (Johnson's Wax) entertained Saturday night at the Racquet Club in honor of Mrs. Grover Weyland of Racine, Wisconsin who is guesting with her sister Mrs. H. F. Dougherty.

Among those bidden to the delightful dinner gathering were Mr. and Mrs. H. F. Dougherty, and Mr. and Mrs. Williams.

Sunday night at the Racquet Club a large number of members of the metropolitan press, in Palm Springs for the baseball opener, were dinner guests for the club's buffet dinner. Acting hosts were Mr. and Mrs. John Whitehead and Mr. and Mrs. William Dunkerley.

Among those present were Mr. and Mrs. Braven Dyer of the Los Angeles Times, Mr. and Mrs. Al Bine, Los Angeles Examiner, Mr. and Mrs. John Old, Herald Express, Lennie Anderson, Seattle Times, Mr. and Mrs. Alex Schiltz also of the Seattle Times, Emmett Watson of the Seattle Post Intelligencer, Leo Lassen, sports commentator radio station KING Seattle, and Mr. and Mrs. William Dunkerley of the Palm Springs' Chamber of Commerce.

Mr. and Mrs. William Powell hosted a delightful luncheon gathering in the Garden Room of the Racquet Club Thursday.

DAR Meeting At Paul Home

The Cahulla chapter of the Daughters of the American Revolution held its March meeting Thursday at the home of Mrs. August Paul. DAR members were addressed by Dr. John R. McCartney on the patriotic part played by the women of early times in building this nation and the importance of maintaining the standards of Americanism today.

Refreshments were served by the hostess following the talk and business meeting.

Mr. and Mrs. Rathbun Hees were down for some tennis and sunshine and will return for Circus Week.

Social ACTIVITIES

AROUND THE VILLAGE IN SIX MINUTES

WITH PRISCILLA CHAFFEY

The whole six minutes was spent this week with the Seattle colony—and they are charming people. And they have fun. And they give BEAUTIFUL parties. The last time we looked around in the winter colony roster there were Art and Ilee Bailey from Seattle, and George Clarke and his pretty Verna, and Palm Springs' white hope for an 18-hole golf course, Ben Shearer and Reddy, and then—all of a sudden there's a whole colony of Seattle boys and girls—Seattle Rainiers—Seattle this and Seattle that. So it's time somebody said, "Salute to Seattle!" Palm Springs gives you all a very special welcome.

All these fine sentiments came to us in the course of a perfectly beautiful party given by Mr. and Mrs. M. O. Anderson and Mr. and Mrs. Gordon Prentice—of Seattle, natch. It was in the patio of the Casa Descanso which is the Anderson's winter colony home on Camino Encanto with the bar set up under a big olive tree and flowers in bloom all around and about. Among guests were Mr. and Mrs. George Robertson, Mr. and Mrs. Norman Waters, Mr. and Mrs. George Clarke, Mr. and Mrs. E. B. McGovern and their lovely daughter Mariane (they arrived from Seattle this week and have leased a home on Chino Drive), Mr. and Mrs. Emil Sick, Mr. and Mrs. Harold McAlister, Dr. and Mrs. Randolph and Dr. and Mrs. Glasgow (the official medico for the Rainiers), Mr. and Mrs. Neil Jamison, Mrs. Tom Flemming (Mr. Flemming gets back next week from a business trip to Chicago), Mr. and Mrs. Jim McAlister, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Ross, Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Colborn, Mr. and Mrs. Howard Richmond, Mr. and Mrs. Torchy Torrence, Mrs. William Malouf, Mrs. Maerie Mayer and Mrs. Tom Mesdag, Mrs. Gilbert Duffy, Mr. and Mrs. F. J. DeBenedetti, Mrs. Weiss (Mr. Weiss drove up to Seattle to bring down his saddle and golf clubs, came back with their daughter and grandchild—no saddle, no golf clubs), Mr. and Mrs. Cochran, Mr. and Mrs. H. K. Dent, Mr. and Mrs. Edwin Fallgren and many, but many more up to around a hundred, and it couldn't have been gayer, that it could not!

Still in the Seattle colony, Mr. and Mrs. Roy Maryatt, who are winter vacationing at the Town Touse, entertained with cocktails Saturday with their guests Mr. and Mrs. Anderson, Mr. and Mrs. Clarke, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Maryatt, Mr. and Mrs. John Burkheimer, Mr. and Mrs. Gordon Prentice, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Ross, Mr. and Mrs. John Emel, Mrs. Hugh Beckett.

Tres Gai Sunday

Sunday seemed to be a great day for parties. Starting off at noon was a big and beautiful affair, con cocktails, for which Melba and Frank Bennett and their daughter Deedee were hosts at the 25 Club. About 200 Villagers gathered to meet Dr. and Mrs. Stewart Hanson, Mlle. Rosette Chaisati (who is spending the winter with the Bennetts from her home in Paris, France), and Alys and Peter Bennett. Everybody having a happy time. Muy gala.

After the ball game, still Sunday, the ball players and the visiting press representatives were entertained with a big and gay cocktail party for which Belmont Sanchez was host. The Chamber of Commerce had the idea and Belmont gave the party, which worked out fine. Guests danced to the Guadalajara Trio and some very flashy rhumbas were on display. In the Seattle press group were Lennie Anderson and Mr. and Mrs. Alex Shultz of the Seattle Times; Emmett Watson of the Seattle Post Intelligencer, Leo Lassen, radio sports commentator, over KING, Seattle, Mr. and Mrs. Braven Dyer were on hand from the Los Angeles Times and Mr. and Mrs. Al Bine from the Examiner, Mr. and Mrs. John Old from the Herald Express. We go into this in some detail due to the fact we often said, and now repeat, give the newspaper boys and girls a good time and let nature take its course in the department of promotion. They are the world's most effective salesmen. And a good time they did have, with Charles Farrell entertaining for them after the party, with dinner at the Racquet Club. Acting hosts for that soiree were Mr. and Mrs. William Dunkerley and Mr. and Mrs. John Whitehead. . . . And STILL on Sunday—Mr. and Mrs. Will Freedman were hosts for a patio barbecue supper at El Rincon where they have been winter guests for many seasons. Forty guests gathered in the moonlight for sizzling steaks preceded by cocktails. The hosts are world travelers and each guest received a gift picked up in Belgium, Malaya and the USA.

Believe it or not, it's STILL Sunday night with Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Kirk the hosts for cock-

Rise Stevens Charms Local Music Lovers

Looking every inch a STAR in a fabulous green brocaded gown, Rise Stevens charmed a full house at the Plaza Theater Tuesday night with a varied program which opened with Handel's deeply moving "Where'er You Walk," from Semele. The concert by the glamorous radio and Metropolitan singer was the third in the concert series being presented this season by the Allied Arts Association. Miss Stevens was accompanied by Brooks Smith, who played an interesting piano group which included Scarlatti and Debussy. She was introduced to her audience by the president of the Allied Arts Association, Andrew Lester.

Miss Stevens presented her program with exceptional dramatic artistry—in appearance and in interpretation she enhanced a perfectly magnificent voice. Her recital was versatile and showed the caliber of her emotional range in selections of Negro spirituals—Shumann's "Widmung," Brahms, Rachmaninoff, a charming song by Frank St. Leger entitled "April," which is still in manuscript with the lyrics by Ruth Campbell. The verse, which is not in print and to date sung only by Miss Stevens, is worth reprinting, as the song was one of the key notes of the recital:

"What naughty phantom of delight is April! Creeping to you in the night comes April.

Her fragrant arms at morn enfold, Her tenderness, her kisses hold, And tales of love are sung and told by April."

The program closed with a flashing, dramatic trio from the opera Carmen which is one of Miss Stevens' best loved Metropolitan roles.

Next attraction announced by the Allied Arts Association is Victor Borge, pianist and humorist, who is tentatively set for April 22.

Winnie Hammond Joins Tenthouse

Winnie Hammond, choir director at St. Paul's, former light opera star, has succumbed to the lure of the theatre and joined the company of the Tenthouse Theatre. Blond and beautiful Winnie was the music for Noel Coward's Family Album and appears this week in Accent on Youth.

First among theatre fans are the baseball players who turn out full force for the theatre in the round and form an enthusiastic clique all their own.

Sandcombers Hosts Distinguished Guests

The Sandcomber was home in the desert for many distinguished guests this week including Dr. George Borgan, famed eye surgeon of Pasadena; Sy Pesek, V.P. of the Minnesota Mining Co., which manufactures Scotch tape; Mr. and Mrs. Donald Sinclair of Yakima, Wash.; Mr. and Mrs. Arnold Kruger, Jeri Manning from Brentwood; Mrs. Gene Woods, Mr. and Mrs. Daniel Levane from Detroit.

tails at the hacienda on Camino del Norte and dinner and dancing at the Shadow Mountain Club. Guests were mostly the good Episcopalians of St. Paul's in the Desert and included Mr. and Mrs. Earl Hoover, Mr. and Mrs. John Lapp, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Camp, Mr. and Mrs. Raymond R. Wilson, Mr. and Mrs. Francis Crocker, Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Samson, Mrs. Elaine Childs Elser, Mrs. Harrison Leusser, Mrs. Noble Banks, Father Robert Hogarth, Robert Palmer, Miss Teresa Fields, Mr. and Mrs. George Clark, Mr. and Mrs. Alex Hammond, Mr. and Mrs. George Wheeler, Miss Beulah Stilsbury and Mrs. Stilsbury.

Portrait of the Week

BY BERNARD OF HOLLYWOOD

Mrs. Mickie Wheeler: Apart from her 23 years of one devoted marriage, and the raising of a young and equally vibrant daughter, Bonnie, Mickie Wheeler cannot be called a career housewife. For, apart from a longstanding membership in the Eastern Star, she is a very active and live-wire hostess and is a member of the executive board of the Palm Springs Women's Club. Mickie's present day "hobbies" and interests, were not always as such. In past years, she was a member of the Los Angeles Harpists' Assoc., and gave concerts with the Ruth Wood group. She studied modern concert dancing under such notables as Martha Graham, Ruth St. Denis, Myra Kirch and Ernest Belcher, as well as dancing at the Hollywood Bowl, the Laguna Art Festival, and so on, under Earl Wallace and the American Ballet Co. These accomplishments cannot obscure a proficiency on the piano, and a love for composition. To all this then, we can say that not only in the expostulation and the appreciation of all forms of art and culture, does Mickie Wheeler have good taste, but also a choice of environment, meaning, of course, Palm Springs, in a husband and daughter.

Villager Wed At Las Vegas

Word was received this week of the surprise wedding last month in Las Vegas of Villager Elmer W. Schutte to Lucille E. Warner of Long Beach.

In a small private ceremony the two plighted their troth Saturday, February 18, returning to the Village the following day.

The bride was associated in the insurance business at the beach city for several years while the groom is well-known in Palm Springs. He is owner of the Palm Springs Mirror and Glass company.

The couple is now "at home" to friends at their residence at 483 North Indian avenue.

Rima Rudini Pleases Large Audience at Woman's Club

By RUTH MARTIN

Exotic and clever Rima Rudina, noted concert violinist, and Robert Hunter, brilliant pianist, completely captivated the audience with their skilled performance when they appeared in recital at the Palm Springs Woman's Club on March 6.

Miss Rudina evidenced an innate sense of showmanship and unusual talent for a young artist in her early, twenties while the piano improvisations created by Mr. Hunter were delightfully original in character and he proved himself an understanding accompanist to Miss Rudina's brilliant dexterity in both the classics and swing.

The program proved to be a well-balanced event which included selections from Bach, Mozart, Respigi, and others equally well known, with a number of short modern novelties all pleasant, clever, and worth hearing. The slim, dark beauty of Miss Rudina was enhanced by a costume of white and gold in classic Greek design while her radiant personality and humorous comments throughout the program established immediate warmth with her audience. At the close of this most entertaining musical the members and guests were invited to remain for the social hour when attractive and delicious refreshments were served by the tea hostesses for the day who were Mrs. Kenneth B. Kirk, chairman; Mrs. George O. Wheeler, Mrs. W. B. Malouf, Mrs. Earl Cordrey, Mrs. John Costello, Mrs. Walter McManus, Mrs. Oliver B. Jaynes, Mrs. John McClure, Mrs. Edwin V. Fallgren. The beautiful decorations were done by Mrs. Vahan H. Alchain, chairman; Mrs. George McClure, Mrs. Fay Brainard, and Mrs. Valentin Blatz, and consisted of lavish arrangements of peach, cherry blossoms and bowls of spring flowers.

ENJOY HOT WATER APLENTY

...FASTER AND CHEAPER

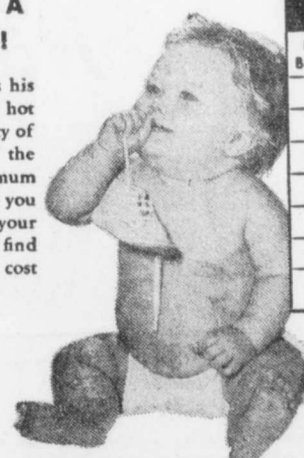

WITH GAS

If you don't have abundant hot water for every household use, stop and think. Has your family increased in size? Have you installed an automatic clothes washer or dishwasher? Each steps up your use of hot water substantially. So for a constant hot water supply and real convenience, you may need a larger heater. Plan now to have oceans of hot water. For gas heats water three times faster and costs far less.

YOU CAN OUTGROW A WATER HEATER, TOO!

Just as easily as a baby outgrows his shoes, so can your family's use of hot water gradually exceed the capacity of your present water heater. Study the chart at right. It tells the minimum size of automatic gas water heater you need in your home. Then talk to your dealer or Gas Company. You'll find that automatic gas water heaters cost less to buy, too!

Here's minimum size AUTOMATIC GAS WATER HEATER your family needs:

Number Bathrooms	Number Bedrooms	Gallons Storage

MR. AND MRS. HERSHEL (Hutch) Moseley entertain this Sunday afternoon with an English tea in honor of their son Richard and his bride, the former Miss Maile Parkhurst, daughter of Col. and Mrs. George Parkhurst, U. S. Army, Ret. Their large church wedding at St. James Episcopal in Los Angeles February 5th was an important social event, followed by a reception at the Tom Clark home in Santa Ana. The bride's parents, Col. and Mrs. Parkhurst will be weekend house guests of the Moseleys, arriving from Santa Ana to attend the party.

Invitations have gone out to about a hundred and fifty guests to meet the bride, who, up until her marriage was a student at USC. Mr. Moseley is a chemistry major at USC.

ROMANCE CAME to the winter colony with the news of the wedding of Lotte Davies, a popular winter colony hostess since the early days of the colony, and her handsome escort during the Christmas holidays, William J. Healy. The marriage took place Monday at the Desert Lodge near Scottsdale. The couple were attended by Mr. and Mrs. Allen G. Murphy of Scottsdale.

Mrs. Healy has a home in the winter colony and they intend to build a new house in Beverly Hills, with their time divided between the two.

Murphys Check In

Harold and Florence Murphy, who are tripping around Mexico, report it's a great life in Acapulco. Harold, now a veteran sail fish-angler, having landed two nine foot beauties—and Florence, not to out done, caught an eight and a half footer. They have been to Mexico City, Cuernavaca, Taxco and the famed Hacienda de la Vista Hermosa and will return to the winter colony here some time in March.

MR. AND MRS. CARL BETCHER, yearly visitors from Red Wing, Minn., were hosts Sunday afternoon for the first of their annual series of Kokonga parties. The party took place in their bungalow at La Serena with music by the strolling cowboy, Tex. Their guests included Mr. and Mrs. Ed Waller, Dr. and Mrs. Carl Flandrick, Mr. and Mrs. Walter McManus, Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Colborn, Mr. and Mrs. Neil Jamison, Mrs. Carman Graham and Miss Rita McClelland of Los Angeles, and Mrs. Ward Warner.

Cocktails for Chicagoans

MR. AND MRS. FRANK BERING, who own the plush Ambassador in Chicago, have been vacationing at the Racquet Club. On Friday afternoon they entertained in the lounge room of the Racquet Club with a cocktail party for over a hundred Village and Chicago friends.

Among guests were Mr. and Mrs. Ed Kelly, Mr. and Mrs. Irving Netcher, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Farrell, Irving Florsheim, Mrs. Edwin Silverman, Mr. and Mrs. Sanford Rose, Mr. and Mrs. Joe Grabner, Mrs. Buddy Clark, Dorothy Gray, Mr. and Mrs. John McClure, Mr. and Mrs. Ed Fallgren, Mrs. Edna Rothbart, Mrs. Genevieve Spitz, Mr. and Mrs. John Dunbar, Mrs. Dorothy Grabner, Mr. and Mrs. James Coston, Mrs. Tom Fleming, and Mr. and Mrs. William Malouf.

The Top of the Morning

INVITATIONS WERE OUT this week for a "Top o' the Mornin' breakfast to be given on St. Patrick's Day by Mr. and Mrs. Raymond R. Wilson at their hacienda on Vereda del Sur. Invitations sported the green clover leaf of Ireland's jovial patron saint and promise a gay and carefree get-together on Friday next.

MRS. JAMES WHITEHORN started on a busy schedule of speechmaking this week that will take her all the way to San Francisco. Tuesday she spoke twice to Los Angeles Pro-America groups. Before going to San Francisco to talk for the D.A.R. she will address the Republican Women of San Bernardino.

MISS JAN KING of Lakeview, Washington, has been visiting with friends in the Village this past week before joining the Shadow Mountain Club staff.

JUDY and BILL TALBOT, two of the happiest kids in town, over the arrival of their small brother Robin, who is now at home on Via Lola with his glamorous mother Mrs. William Talbot and papa Talbot.

St. Patrick's Day for BW

One of the loveliest affairs of the season was held Monday night in the Airliner cafe out at Palm Springs airport by Palm Springs Business Women's club. Nearly sixty members and guests were seated at the beautifully appointed tables decorated in the St. Patrick's motif. Shamrocks were scattered on the tables and down the center green top hats were filled with white candytuft. Between the green and white of the hats were placed littered green candles, making a very pretty sight.

Social Notes

Happy birthday was sung to Edna Brott, Ellen Blavashchi Hope Landfield, Ruby Chapin and Edith Goldberg, as birthday cakes decorated with Shamrocks were presented to each. Children present also having birthdays (this month and receiving cakes were Patsy Bentley and Sandra Brott.) Following the dinner, games were played. Decorations were made and carried out by Sandra and Adele Brott.

Palm Desert Sunbeams

By EDITH EDDY WARD

Mr. and Mrs. G. R. Kirk of Tacoma, Washington have been staying for the past two weeks in the lovely Palm Village home of their son and daughter-in-law, Colonel and Mrs. Robert Ellsworth. On Saturday, March 4th, they celebrated their forty-seventh wedding anniversary at a family party given in the Ellsworth home. Joining in the festivities and enjoying the beautiful three-tiered cake baked for the occasion were Colonel Ellsworth's aunt and uncle, Mr. and Mrs. Morris P. Kirk of San Marino who have been visiting their nephew since the beginning of the year, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Caruthers of Arcadia, Mrs. Phil Renkin and Bob Ellsworth Jr.

Celebrities visiting Shadow Mountain Club during the past week were Mr. and Mrs. Gene Raymond, Mrs. Carl Brisson (Rosalind Russell), Mr. and Mrs. Benjamin Fairless (president of U. S. Steel) who have just returned to Detroit after spending a few days at Palm Desert, and Wallace Stirling, formerly of the Huntington museum and now president of Stanford university.

The Walter O. Briggs left for Detroit last week. They were reluctant to leave the desert area which they have enjoyed for the past few weeks and promised to hurry back. Joining in a farewell luncheon given on the Shadow Mountain Club terrace in their honor were Mr. and Mrs. Edgar Bergen, Mr. and Mrs. Leonad Firestone, the Gene Raymonds and Mr. and Mrs. E. E. Tracy (Ford Motors), Detroit. The Tommy Tomsons of "Hot Rocks" in Palm Desert celebrated Doris Tomson's birthday on Friday, March 3 at a dinner at the club, joined by their friends Mr. and Mrs. Howard Everett, Janet and Richard Everett of Pacific Palisades and the Tomson's daughter, Duchess.

Dining and dancing to the music of the Todds and Mike Barton were Mr. and Mrs. David B. Heyler with Mr. and Mrs. W. B. Jager, Beverly Hills, Mr. and Mrs. F. R. Gageol of the Twin Coach Co., Kent, Ohio who dined with Mr. and Mrs. Harry D. Tompkins (Firestone executive), and Frank Ewing of the Palm Springs Chamber of Commerce and Mrs. Wing were joined by the Kenneth Colburns of Palm Springs for dinner. J. F. O'Connor of Los Angeles, new members of Shadow Mountain Club, have taken a house for three months in Palm Desert so as to enjoy the ideal weather of the desert area. Also staying for a couple of weeks in their beautiful Palm Desert home are the Walter E. Botthoffs of the Standard Rate and Data Service in Chicago.

The Palm Desert Raiders, of which there are 193 members, ranging from 5-65 years, from various states, had a dinner at the club last Friday night to celebrate their winning the trophy at the National Date Festival for being the best Western mounted group. The dinner also served as a rally for the First Annual Palm Desert Raider's

Indian Trail ride the following morning. For weeks, members of the Raiders have been exploring an old Indian trail leading from Palm Desert to La Quinta and on Saturday, March 4 they set out at 8:30 a.m. to open the trail, led by Carl Henderson. 45 Raiders rode halfway to Camp Coyote, their permanent camp at the western end of the Indian Trail where they had black coffee in tin buckets, weiners, beans and hardtack, amongst them Mr. and Mrs. Henry Kruse and youngsters, Mrs. G. A. Chapman, Mrs. William P. Lear, Joy Olesen, Duchess Tomson, Mrs. Bernie Rogers and her son, Jack, the Bob Zurbach and even little Pamela Peck, who rode all the way on a pony. Dee and Bob Richardson, Carl Henderson, the Henry Kruse, Bob Zurbach, Mrs. Chapman, Jack Rodgers, Joy Olesen and Duchess Tomson then continued to climb over the tricky mountain ridge 4000 feet up and finally wended their way down to La Quinta. This opening of the Old Indian Trail will provide much riding and hiking enjoyment in the future of outdoor enthusiasts. Water was found on the way, at the Oasis, a palm-filled canyon where Indians used to roam in days gone by. The Desert Raiders' next event will be the Circus Week parade in Palm Springs.

Kirk Johnsons
Lease Home Here

Mr. and Mrs. Kirk B. Johnson of Santa Barbara have leased the Lullie B. Ryan home on North Patencio road for the remainder of the season. They arrived several weeks ago and have been staying at the Desert Inn and taking an active part in the social life of the winter colony.

Stag Soiree For Visiting Clubmen

It was "Men's Night" at Nate Milnor's house on the hill Tuesday when 32 members of the famed Los Angeles Poker and Golf Club arrived by air for a visit to Palm Springs.

The group of prominent business executives and financiers flew down via a special United Airlines plane to be royally entertained by their host, Mr. Milnor.

Festivities started off with a lunch at the 25 Club followed by golf and sightseeing around the Village. Cocktails at the Club late in the afternoon included leading villagers to meet the distinguished visitors. Entertainment was supplied by local artists with music and singing. The party adjourned to the house on the hill at 8 o'clock for an outdoor chuck wagon dinner hosted by Mr. Milnor with Jack Foyer in charge of operations. A short program followed dinner with the Poker and Golf Club's president, Watkins enthusiastic in his praise and appreciation of his Palm Springs host and Palm Springs hospitality.

Charles Farrell greeted the group and Actor-Singer Phil Regan spoke and sang for the guests.

Also present from the Village to greet the visiting "brass" were Mario Giannini, Barney Hinkle, Claude Valeur, Earl C. fman, John Woods, Dr. Frank Purcell, Harold West, Billy Malouf, Fred Ingram, J. E. "Dad" French, Ed Thompson, Tony Burke, Cliff Halstead, Frank Bennett, Mrs. Michael O'Connor and William F. Clavin.

United Air Lines' representative in charge of the flight was Anthony J. Schoepf, assistant district traffic and sales manager.

Judge and Mrs. Harley Shaw were down from their home in Los Feliz Hills, Los Angeles, for a visit with their son and daughter-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Lucian Shaw.

This Week's Garden Hints

From the Palm Springs Garden Club

Last week we considered the control of such Garden Pests as aphids, caterpillars and nematodes. There are two or three others you may meet up with, so we'd better know about them, too.

THRIPS

It isn't the sound a thrush makes, it's a minute insect that scrapes the green leaves and retards the growth of your plants, trees and flowers. It plants its eggs in the leaves for the winter and about March first hatches, and goes about its scraping until November or December. The best control for thrips is a DDT spray (which causes paralysis). In this area thrips feed mostly on citrus trees, but you may also find them on gladioli and stock. Like the aphid, they curl the leaf of the citrus, and the only way you can determine whether you should direct your remarks to an aphid or a thrips is, you can SEE an aphid, but the thrips is so tiny you'll have to get your magnifying glass to find him.

REDSKALE

In 1941 there were thirty yards in Palm Springs which were infested with red scale. Thanks to the perseverance of the Riverside County office of Agriculture, in 1948 there were only three infested yards. This year not a live, nor even a dead redscale has been found here. So you aren't likely to have them worrying you unless you are foolish enough to import plants or citrus trees from other counties without asking Mr. Cordell of the Riverside office to inspect them for you before you plant them. Call the local Chamber of Commerce and leave word to have the Inspector call on you. He makes three trips to Palm Springs every week. We would advise you to buy your citrus trees from the Coachella Valley, as in the Coachella area, for instance, the citrus trees are dying out due to the prevalence of redscale. Redscale is a virus that infests not only citrus but practically everything — iris, chrysanthemums, pine trees, etc.

BIRDS

It hurts me to tell you, but birds aren't the innocent dears that they appear to be. They can be garden pests, too, if you have planted grass seed or are a pyracantha owner. However, you can discourage them from eating your pretty red pyracantha berries by dusting the berries with a preparation known as "Birds-Off" which you can buy at your local nursery. Put some of the powder in a little cloth bag and dust away. As for discouraging the birds from eating your grass seed—plant thin sticks with a streamer of white crepe paper tied to them, at about six feet intervals throughout your lawn, and hope for a breeze.

($5.50 year anywhere else in U. S.)

Because The Desert Sun is concentrating on the Friday issue, and will suspend the Tuesday issue until further notice, the subscription rate has been reduced to $4.50 per year in Riverside County. There will be an extra charge of $1.00 to cover mailing outside the county, making the annual rate $5.50 for those subscribers. The Friday issue will contain a complete report of the week's news instead of dividing it between the two issues.

Local subscribers who are paid in advance will have their subscriptions extended on the following basis:

MONTHS PAID IN ADVANCE	MONTHS EXTENDED
9 to 12 mos. (inclusive).	3 mos.
5 to 8 mos. (inclusive).	2 mos.
1 to 4 mos. (inclusive).	1 mo.

Subscriptions of out-of-town subscribers who are paid in advance will be extended one month.

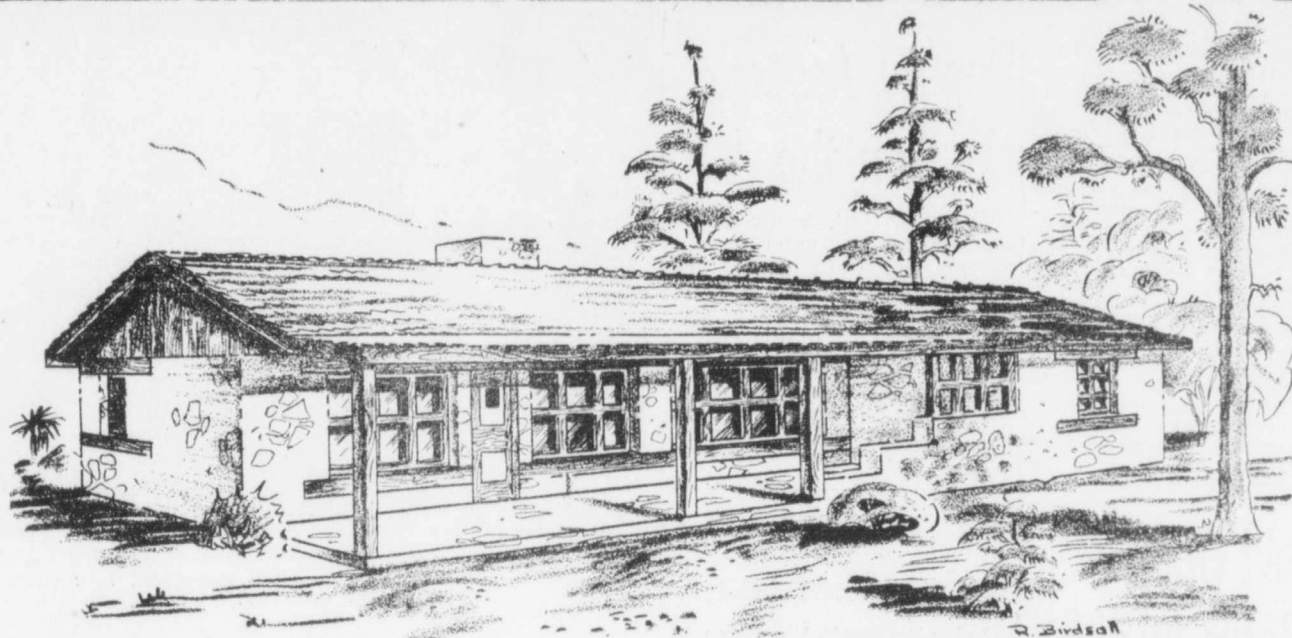

Although the Tuesday issue will likely be resumed early next fall, those who subscribe (or renew) in the meantime will receive both issues during the balance of their unexpired term without extra charge.

SMALL HOME PRESENTS MASSIVE CONSTRUCTION

The home pictured this week is one that presents the massive style of construction usually expressed with adobe or field rock construction.

The low rambling farm house type with its unbroken roof lines gives the atmosphere of lounging-comfort whether on the porch or in any of its spacious rooms.

This plan can be faced either with the kitchen on the street side or reversed so as to face the gardens in the rear. Off of the kitchen is the eating area which may serve either as a dining room or less formal eating area for family breakfasts, snacks, etc.

THE KITCHEN is adequate for a small family with its door on the side rather than on the garden or entertaining side of the house. The bathroom situated between the bedroom and the den accentuates the private living of its owners: each room having its own closet and dressing case or chest of drawers so that the den may readily be converted into an extra overnight sleeping area for the unexpected guest.

The entire home is only 860 square feet in floor area, but the floor plan and elevations are engineered so as to give the appearance of a much larger home.

MASSIVE, POSTS and window mullions carry out the heavy massive overall style of the structure to give that permanent and solid appearance which lends itself so easily to informal landscaping.

This type of home, set in a grove or ranch setting is the type you expect in your dreams—tucked away on a picturesque knoll or in a beautiful clump of trees, with a lazy curl of smoke emerging slowly from the fireplace chimney.

Garnet Substation Put Into Service

According to F. F. Crocker, district manager of the California Electric Power company at Palm Springs, the new $480,000 Garnet substation was connected last week and is now in operation.

The original substation was built at the Garnet site in 1938 and it is interesting to note that in the past 12 years, due to the tremendous growth of this area, the load at the substation has increased approximately ten times, Crocker said.

To cope with this growth and with the future of the area in mind, California Electric has added $480,000 in substation facilities and now supplies power to the Garnet substation over two 90,000-volt lines, both normally connects to the substation. In the event of trouble on either line, special relays determine the section of the fault and trip only the line on which the trouble occurs, eliminating many power stoppages.

All circuits fed from the substation have automatic reclosing switches, which will further reduce failures and in addition have installed regulating transformers to keep the voltage constant to the customers.

The facilities that have been installed at the Garnet substation are capable of handling approximately a 75% increase over present demands.

Crocker said the company feels justified in making this expenditure to provide for anticipated future growth and to assure the area of metropolitan service.

Would Open New Bank by July 11

A. O. Torgerson, president of Desert Bank at Cathedral City expressed the hope this week that the institution could be able to open its proposed Palm Springs branch on July 11, its first anniversary.

State approval has already been received and federal o.k. is expected soon.

The new bank is planned for the Strebe theater building on North Palm Canyon drive.

Deputy Assessor Now on the Job

Thomas Powell, deputy county assessor for the Palm Springs district last week started his annual check of local property values for the 1950-51 tax rolls. He is one of 25 in the county who started on the task March 1.

Frank Burchfield, county assessor, directing the work, said there would be no major changes in assessment rolls this year, only minor adjustments here and there.

No Opposition for Judge Therieau

Judge Eugene E. Therieau will be unopposed at the June primaries for the office of justice of peace of Palm Springs township as deadline for filing notices of intention to seek election passed with no one filing but the incumbent.

Judge John Gabbert, judge of department three, superior court, whose office is also at stake in the primaries, is also without opposition.

Jewish Women Hear Fine Talk By Rabbi Jasini

Rabbi Jasini of Los Angeles gave an inspiring talk about "Allegiance of American Jewry to Israel" and John Chernus, president of the United Jewish Appeal for India and Palm Springs announced that the drive will officially open March 19 at last week's meeting of the Palm Springs Jewish Women's group. FOUR IN A DAY—Taking it easy at his new Merita Vista home after a busy day above is Guy Anderson, local realtor. He had just completed four transactions totaling more than $200,000 and thought he was entitled to a rest.

Silvermans Buy Home in Village

Announcement was made yesterday that Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Silverman of Long Beach have purchased the new Carl Bohne home at 720 Camino Real. William Boggess of the Robert Ransom office represented both buyer and seller.

Mr. Bohne had but recently completed the new home and had planned to use it as his winter residence here but Mr. Silverman persuaded him to sell.

14 there will be a canasta party at the dining room of the Casitas del Monte with all proceeds to go for the Community Center. Miss Ruth Eltinger and Mrs. Kate Neishuler are sponsoring the affair.

Mrs. Ruben Kulla presided at last week's meeting. Next meeting will be on April 12.

Guy Anderson Sets Record Of Four Sales in a Day

Guy Anderson, local realtor, has Friday, March 3, marked in red on his calendar. That's the day he completed four local deals, all in one day, totaling more than $200,000. He believes that is a record for Palm Springs.

Included in the four deals were the Casa de Linda, 13 units and a pool, with Abraham and Ida Spector selling to Alex and Luella Crawford.

Deal Number 2 was the Gordon Peekings triplex. The buyers name was not disclosed.

In deal Number 3, O. N. Karn sold his modern home in El Mirador park to Mrs. Van Horn of Hollywood.

The fourth deal involved 100 acres of land near Palm Springs sold for Mr. and Mrs. Gerald Dever to Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Gibson and Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Fasching of Palm Springs.

During the same 24-hour period, Anderson found time to take possession of the Merita Vista home he had just purchased from Esther Gilbert and to buy 60 acres of land for himself.

Grads and ex-students of the University of Southern California will gather tonight at the Committee of 25 clubhouse on West Alejo in the first meeting of the Palm Springs Trojan club.

Head Football Coach Jeff Cravath, Alumni Director Arnold Eddy and Dean Tracy E. Strevey are scheduled to be on hand to assist in the organization and Cravath will show slow-motion color pictures of the Ohio State-Trojan football game of last year.

Reservations may be made with Gustave Patzner at the high school or at his home, 6063.

Buick Does Everything But Talk Says Claude Valeur

"An automobile that does everything but talk," has been said of the Buick, and even now steps are being made to do just that, according to Claude Valeur of the Desert Inn garage.

New "gimmick" is the selectronic radio used by Buick that can be tuned automatically with the left foot by a switch similar to that used to raise and lower headlight beams. Safety engineers have approved the device as a major contribution to highway safety since it eliminates the distracting task of tuning the radio while driving. Valeur announced the radio will be available as optional equipment on all 1950 model Buicks and several of the cars already delivered through his dealership have been equipped with the Selectronic turn feature.

Supervisors Out To Get Oil Men Busy in County

County supervisors want oil well activity in the county. They are willing to pay to get it.

This week they adopted a resolution asking state legislators to pass an enabling act so that they could offer cash inducement to wildcaters.

They might go as high as $20,000 to the first person to bring in a 300 barrel per day well.

Right now the county cannot offer prizes so the board voted to ask the state to pass an act allowing such procedure. No harm in trying, they said.

WORK UNDER WAY ON NEW DRIVE-IN THEATER

Work is under way on construction of a new drive-in theater on Highway 111 between Palm Springs and Cathedral City. Hicks and Allred, local general contractors, broke ground for the structure this week.

Completion of the 600-car outdoor theater is expected within eight or 10 weeks, Benjamin Bronstein, owner, said. A resident of the Village for many years, Bronstein believes the theater will attract people from all over Coachella Valley, especially families with small children.

The new theater will be of the most modern design and will blend in with the desert scenery, Bronstein said. The latest in sound equipment and other items designed for patrons' comfort will be featured.

The land on which the theater is being built is adjacent to Sun-Air, just this side of Cathedral City.

A HOME IN THE SUN—Two interior sketches of bungalows planned for the Palm Valley Country Club to be built this year on Highway 111 on a 40-acre site overlooking Palm Springs and the desert. At the top, the comfortable, restful living room with a fireplace. Lower drawing, typical bedroom, also with a view. The bungalows will be built on spacious lots in the grounds of the new club, construction on which is expected to start in June.

Palm Valley Club Office Established On Andreas Road

Palm Valley club projected new Palm Springs spa, has established temporary offices in the Village according to J. Ward Cohen, president. Offices are located in the Carnell building at 125 East Andreas road, just off Palm Canyon drive.

Although he opened his invitation list for members only last week, Cohen has already received applications from many prominent residents of Palm Springs.

The club, to be located on a 40 acre site adjoining Smoke Tree Ranch, will feature swank living and recreational accommodations for adults and children. One of the most important ideas recently added to the plan is separate elaborate Turkish bath facilities for men and for women.

Telephones for Palm Valley club's temporary offices are 5238 and 2701.

Safeway Staff Tops Red Cross Drive

Safeway stores staff, third last year in employee participation in the Red Cross drive, was first this year, Val Blatz, chairman said. Palm Springs Hardware and Department store again took second place.

County Election Campaign Opens For All Offices

County election campaign opened Wednesday, first day for filing nomination papers for candidates for U. S. House of Representatives, state senate and assembly and 44 county offices. Nominations close March 31.

Two more names were added this week to those announcing their intent to seek re-election. William O. Mackey, district attorney, and Jack Rose, county recorder, said they would again seek office.

The supervisory campaign in the Fourth District was still proceeding slowly. Collis Mayflower, incumbent, said he was definitely not a candidate. A Good Government league, organized at Indio last week, endorsed Mrs. Helen Hester, former councilwoman of Indio for the position. But other candidates are said to be in the running.

James L. Easley, former supervisory and whose place Mayflower took, heads the Good Government league.

Auxiliary Hears Councilwoman in Talk on Parks

Highlighting her talk to the American Legion auxiliary on Tuesday evening with a few experiences, Mrs. Ruth Hardy surprised the group by disclosing that she is a past department president, for in 1920 she held that office for the State of Arizona. One of her souvenirs is a well worn book showing pictures and short biographies of the leaders in auxiliary work in those early years. Turning the pages of the book kindled memories among many of those present who themselves had been members in various parts of the country in those "pioneering" days.

Mrs. Hardy's subject was really a very informative talk on the growth and development of the cities, parks and playgrounds and the planting and lighting of the palms on Palm Canyon drive. Great interest was evidenced throughout her talk and her replies to questions cleared up many misunderstandings.

During the business session, plans were made for the annual observance of the Legion's birthday which will be observed locally on March 21 with a dinner at which members of Owen Coffman Post will be guests.

Preliminary plans were launched for the initiation ceremonies planned for April 4th at which time members of the newly formed unit in Desert Hot Springs will present their candidates. Following the session refreshments were served by Mrs. H. McCabe and Mrs. D. Floan.

Grant Pay Raises To Constables, Justices, 8 Others

Reluctantly, supervisors Monday voted 3 to 2 to raise the salaries of eight elected officers and 15 justices of peace and 15 constables.

They were not happy about it because they feared that it would bring requests for raises from 1000 other county workers.

Officials getting raises were County Clerk Gordon Pequegnat, Recorded Jack Rose, Assessor Frank Burchfield, Tax Collector Marguerite Hyde, Treasurer Sherman Whitnah, Sheriff Carl Rayburn, Surveyor A. C. Keith and Coroner Ben White. It brings their average salaries to approximately $6400.

Sunair Park Now Takes on Aspect Of Beauty Spot

Cathedral City's new Sunair Park is beginning to look like a park. The windbreak of Tamarisk trees has now reached a respectable height and a carpet of green covers the entire park grounds. This green is a sowing of oats which will serve to hold the soil until a permanent grass cover can be put in this fall. Professor Kyle has been laboring from dawn to dusk and the three or four dozen trees he has planted are leafing out in good shape. Park Committee Chairman W. R. Hillery states that the committee have been doing yeoman service in getting the grounds established. He has been informed that the Lions Club will erect a large picnic barbecue in the near future and a community affair to celebrate the opening of the park is scheduled for late spring.

Cathedral City Enters Float In Desert Circus Parade

At the regular monthly meeting held Tuesday night at the Town Hall, the Chamber of Commerce authorized funds for the entry of a Cathedral City float in the Palm Springs Circus parade which will be held March 25. The float will feature Cathedral City's Jamboree and Barbecue to be held April 1st, the Saturday following the Desert Circus. Eddie Daniels will have charge of the decoration of the float, with Mike Gordon supplying the necessary truck and equipment. Ben Scott is arranging for musicians and a team of western dancers to be drawn from Scott's Dancing Tots. The chamber directed that a letter be sent to Capt. MacCracken of the sheriff's office recommending that, is and when, a change is to be made in the deputy sheriff covering this district, Mr. Lewis Duncan be favorably considered for the application. Mr. Duncan served for more than 20 years on the Los Angeles police force and has been a resident and property owner for five years in Cathedral City where he has been active in civic affairs.

Lions See Films Of Forests and Red Cross Work

The Lions were entertained at their meeting last evening in the Town Hall by some very interesting short film subjects presented by the State Forestry division and by the local Red Cross chapter. Mrs. Josephine Moon assisted by Alphonse Larrison is now doing the catering for the Lions and they were given a rising vote of thanks by the members for their public spirit in taking on this work and for the excellent quality of food so skillfully prepared and served. Speaking for the Chamber of Commerce, Lion Warner Moon thanked the Lions Club and its vice president, John Palmer, who heads the fund raising committee, for the Lions cooperation in arranging dates so as not to conflict with the Chamber of Commerce Jamboree which will be held April 1st.

Woman's Club Celebrates 11th Birthday Party

Cathedral City Woman's club is celebrating its 11th birthday by giving a party next Wednesday evening at the Town Hall. Invited guests are members of the Chamber of Commerce and Lions Clubs with their wives, also the local Boys and Girls Scout troops. Old timers and prominent citizens who may not be members of the organizations are being sent special invitations. Besides celebrating their 11th birthday, the party also celebrates the completion of alterations and redecoration of the Town Hall, the club's meeting place. A popular vote will be taken at the party to choose a painting by some local artist to be purchased by the club and hung in the Town Hall.

Awards to the winners in the flower arrangements class conducted by Eddie Daniels will be made. Mr. Daniels has donated a great deal of time toward securing the flowers used and toward instructing the class and all proceeds derived from the sale of the arrangements go to the club for its various activities. The flowers are to be disposed of as prizes in a cake walk. The speaker of the evening is Ken Nolan, lecturer and traveler. Mr. Nolan has just returned from an extensive motorcycle trip through Europe, visiting villages and hamlets as well as the larger cities, with special emphasis upon Europe's children. His lecture is illustrated and those who have heard him state that he is very well versed in an extremely interesting and entertaining manner.

two-year term. The committee will report at the next meeting, April 4. Election will be held April 25 and chamber members must have paid this year's dues in order to be entitled to vote.

Mrs. Mary Wolseth has been named membership chairman of Chapter 9 of the American Association for the United Nations. This chapter takes in the territory from Beaumont to the Salton Sea and north to 29 Palms. Mrs. Wolseth says that she is particularly concerned in securing all civic and social organizations, such as service clubs, school groups, etc., as members as a group. This will facilitate the work of disseminating the information which is so necessary in order to have united backing for our United Nations representatives in the world councils.

Floral Classes To Start Today

The first of two classes in flower arrangements under the sponsorship of the Cathedral City Woman's Club will be held this afternoon from 3 to 5 at the Town Hall. Eddie Daniels will give professional advice and demonstrations in the choosing, preserving, and arrangement of bouquets and in the wiring and preparation of corsages. The second class will be held at the Town Hall next Wednesday from 3 to 5 p.m. Mrs. Mary Wolseth, club president, asks that all vases and flower baskets which can be spared be brought to the Town Hall on loan for the class. Members of the class will compete for prizes to be awarded at the Woman's Club party Wednesday evening.

ADVANCE INFORMATION

(A Short Story)
By RICHARD HILL WILKINSON

SAM SHEPARD was the logical suspect for the crime. Sam had borrowed $15,000 from old Mrs. Hodges, and had given her a note for the amount.

Mrs. Hodges was a real estate operator and maintained an office on Fay street in Bridgewater. According to her secretary, she kept all her business papers in a safe at the office, but according to the secretary, she had taken Sam

Jackson assembled all this information, sorted it out, thought about it and then went to the inn where Sam Shepard was staying, and questioned him.

"Did you see Mrs. Hodges on Tuesday night?"

"No, I retired the minute I arrived here. I waked at 8 o'clock, dressed, walked out to the Barstow place, found it dark and so returned to the inn and went to bed."

"Did you contact any one at all before you retired, after reaching here Tuesday night?"

"Yes, I called Mrs. Hodges' office in Bridgewater. Her secretary answered. She said Mrs. Hodges hadn't been feeling well and had gone home early."

"Is that all?"

"Yes."

Inspector Jackson didn't arrest Sam Shepard. Instead he had a talk with Mrs. Hodges' secretary.

"When Shepard called did you tell him Mrs. Hodges had taken his note home with her?"

"Why, no, why should I?"

"That's the point. You wouldn't, in the general course of things."

Jackson next visited Mrs. Saunders, the housekeeper. "Did Mrs. Hodges tell you she had brought Sam Shepard's note home with her from the office before she retired on Tuesday night?"

"She didn't tell me nothin', except that she had a headache and was going to bed without her dinner."

Jackson returned to police headquarters and explained his findings to the chief.

"Of course, he said, 'the one who killed Mrs. Hodges was the secretary. I've sent a man out to pick her up.'"

"But hold on! How do you know? Sam Shepard had the only motive. Why would the secretary want to kill her?"

Jackson shrugged. "That's a wrinkle we'll have to iron out later. All I know is Shepard couldn't have possibly known that Mrs. Hodges took the note from her office to her home. And the note was stolen. The only one who knew about it being there was the secretary. I've checked thoroughly. It looks as though the secretary saw a swell chance to pin the guilt, logically, on an innocent man."

Cathedral City

A crew of workmen this week started clearing and grading the ground in preparation for construction of the new drive-in theater to be erected at the western edge of Cathedral City. It is expected that the theater will be ready for operation in about two months.

Miss Irene Urbach of Austin, Minnesota, has purchased the new residence just erected by Mhoon and Mhoon in Sunair Park. Miss Urbach has spent the past four winters in Cathedral City residing at Wolseth's Desert Lodge.

Messrs. Ben Scott of Scott's House of Gifts, and W. R. Hillery, Realtor, who are registrars of voters in this community, wish to remind local residents that April 13 is the last day to register for the June 6 primary. As the closing date for the general election in November is September 12, before most people return, registration should be made now.

Martin Corneau, an attorney of Woodstock, N. Y., accompanied by Mrs. Corneau, is a guest at Desert Lodge. They like our climate so well that they have already made reservations to return next year.

Jack and Florence Cathey, old friends from Albany, Oregon, are houseguests of the Carol Wallers. Mr. Cathey owns and operates a 320-acre ranch near Albany exclusively devoted to the production of rye grass seed.

A double birthday dinner was enjoyed last week at the San Geronimo Inn in Banning by Mr. and Mrs. M. D. Burns and Mr. and Mrs. R. B. Cregar. The occasion was the birthday of Mr. Burns and Mrs. Cregar.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Schweitzer have returned to their home in Temple City after several days as house guests of the R. B. Cregar. The Cregar has also recently entertained Mr. and Mrs. Kirk, old time friends from San Jose, and from Long Beach. Mr. and Mrs. H. Stansifer, Mr. and Mrs. Bruce Fortney, Mrs. Helen Lehnard and Mrs. Viola Dunbar.

Mr. Robert Sherrill and Mrs. Paul Clark were entertained on their birthday last Sunday by a dinner given by Mr. Clark and Mrs. Sherrill.

Vance Graham, who has the Bolero Hour on radio station KMPC in Hollywood, has been a visitor for several days with Sam Arner recently. They knew each other in Denver when Vance was an announcer over KOA and Arner was studying dramatics. While here Mr. Graham, with Mrs. Robert Maxwell and Arner were judges in the finals in the Home Talent division at the Indio Date Festival. Little Patsy Sanders of Cathedral City was one of the features with her tap dancing.

Bill Sanders and Mickey Allbright have opened a new cooler sales and service business in the Potter building adjoining the Cathedral City Market.

New High Set By Entries for Golf Tourney

Owing to the large number of entries in the Class A event in the 15th annual Invitational Golf tournament, play is being split up into four days of competition, while the Championship class, Seniors and Women's are also already listing a record number of participants.

More than 150 top amateurs of the nation are listed in the championship flights and over 160 in the seniors. And, although not to be held until the first week of April, 169 definite entries in the women's tournament have also been received by Manager Ernie LaFleur at the O'Donnell course.

GEORGE HOWARD, professional at the course, who is handling the pairings, announced yesterday that the Class A event was being extended to four days of play. Class A golfers are those with seven handicap or more while the championship class is composed of golfers with qualified handicaps of less than seven.

Play commences in the men's Invitational next Sunday and will continue through the following Sunday.

CHAMPIONSHIP FLIGHT will be the following weekend with last year's two stars—Johnny Dawson, defending champ, and Runner-up Bruce McCormick—both entered for another trial. Also to be on hand for his attempt will be Harry Givan, winner of the 1948 event. Calcutta will be held as usual at the Desert Inn Thursday evening preceding the championship play. Time is set for 9 o'clock.

Class A event will find defending champ George Lewis, out this year to try to repeat as will Bill Taverner, last year's senior winner.

Athletic Club Now Member of AAU

By official action in Los Angeles Monday night, the Palm Springs Athletic club was voted into the Amateur Athletic Union, national amateur regulating organization for all types of athletes.

The club was represented at the meeting by Cecil Hartman, secretary, and after hearing the aims and activities of the organization voted the Village club in.

This is said by President Bill Goodridge to be the only club in Riverside county so honored by the A.A.U.

Believe Juveniles Back of Burglaries

Two entries into homes on West Alajo and West Arenas were reported to police Wednesday morning.

Sergeant Durman Ordway, in charge of the investigation, attributed the attempted burglaries to juveniles due to the crude manner of entry. Only articles taken were tennis rackets and two pairs of prescription glasses from one of the houses.

Hoop Tournament Set for Banning

Tournament play of the Southern California Municipal Athletic federation will be held at the Banning high school gymnasium this year, it was revealed last week by Tom McDougall, basketball commissioner of the federation, with the week's play to start Saturday, March 18, and finals March 25.

It was indicated by Bob Bennett, Palm Springs city recreation director, that the Doll House team would not be entered but there are many of the county teams including Banning, Indio and San Jacinto, which will participate. Best teams of the southland are entered and full schedule will be announced next week. Hosts are the Banning city recreation department with the assistance of the Chamber of Commerce. City director is Gene Burson, who yesterday announced admission to the games will be 50 cents with a charge to students of 25 cents. Guy Weir is the chamber host.

Jaycee Topples League-Leading DHS Five, 33-31

Winding up the second round robin, the city basketball play Monday night at the Palm Springs Athletic club, Desert Hot Springs, league leaders, were humbled by the fighting and rejuvenated Junior Chamber of Commerce team, now being managed by Earl Hough.

Score in this game was 33-31, and strangely enough, in the second game of the evening, an identical score was recorded as the Globe Trotters downed the Youth Center, 33-31.

This now makes a tie for first between DHS and the Trotters, each having won eight and lost three.

Final standings at the end of the second round are as follows:
Team— W. L. Pct.
DHS . . . 8 3 .727
Globe Trotters . . . 8 3 .727
Youth Center . . . 7 4 .636
Rockets . . . 5 5 .500
Jaycees . . . 6 4 .600
Rudy's Gardeners . . . 2 8 .200
Dukes (disbanded) . . . 0 6 .000

Low Handicaps Dominate Field In Golf Tourney

An interesting sidelight on the 15th Annual Invitational Golf tournament commencing Sunday is announced by Ernie LaFleur, manager at the O'Donnell course, in that in the championship flight there are more than 150 entered with a handicap of six or less.

Included in the list is Johnny Dawson, last year's winner, and Harry Givan, 1948 winner, Bruce McCormick, runner-up to Dawson last year, is out for the top prize as are Mac Hunter, California state champ, and Jack Westland, holder of the state title in Washington.

Spring Party Wednesday

Chamber of Commerce spring party this year will fall next Wednesday night as the Pre-Calcutta party, to be held at the Tennis Club. Admission for the benefit will be by donation.

Dancing, games and entertainment will be featured for the event which is precursor to the Calcutta party at the Desert Inn the following evening.

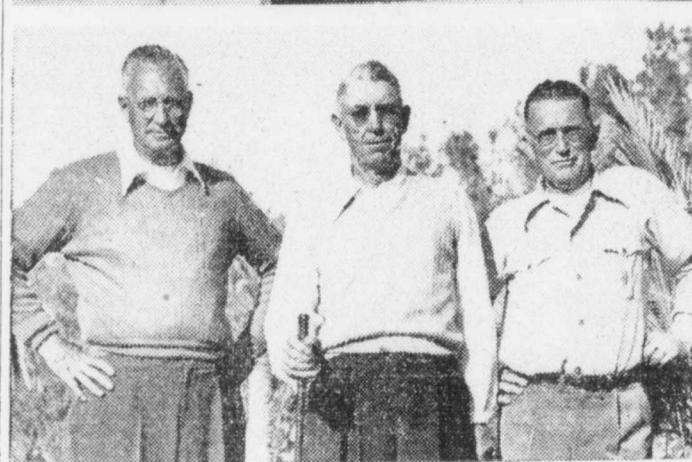

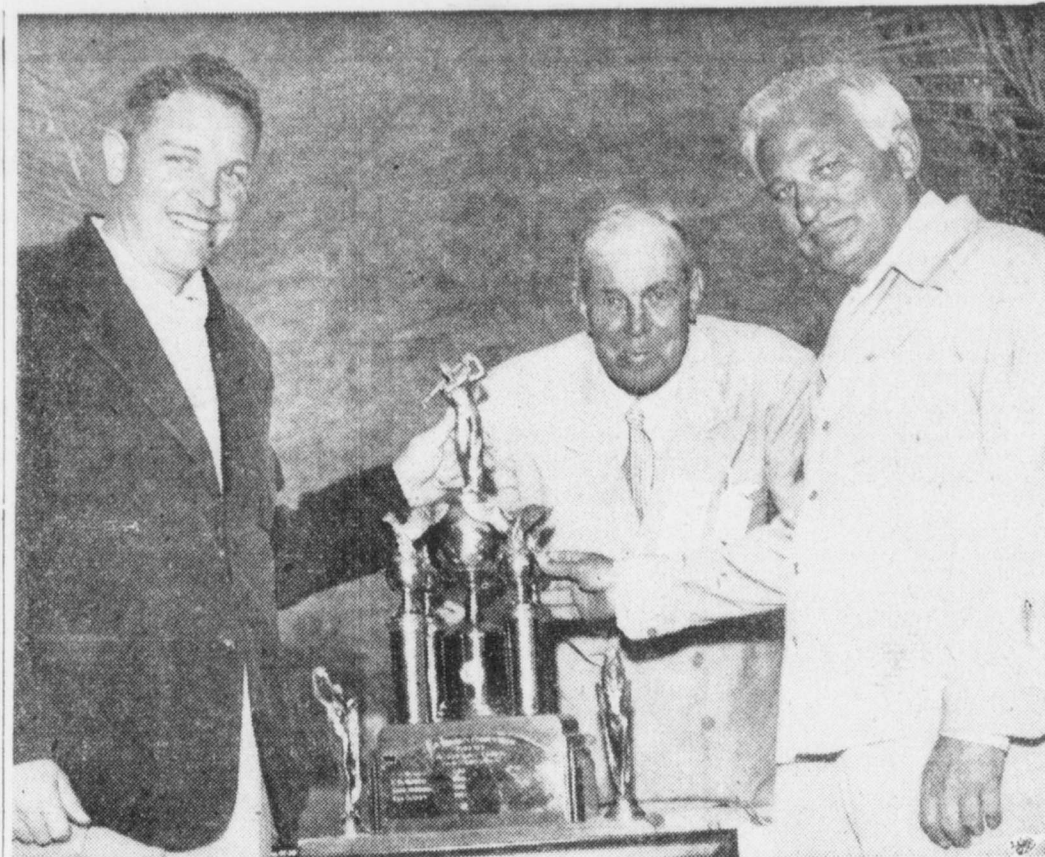

Doll House Plays S. J. Thursday

Makeup game between the Doll House basketball team and the San Jacinto town team will be played next Thursday evening at the high school, according to Bob Bennett of the city recreation department.

Game was postponed last month. Time for play is 8:30 p.m.

Lake Arrowhead Quint Coming Here

Lake Arrowhead chukkers have challenged the local bowlers to a match game next Sunday at 2:30 p.m. on the local lanes. A men's team, and a ladies' team will be mixing the pins, and to make it more interesting the Lake Junior Bowlers have challenged the local Juniors on the same day.

BUCS, PIRATES TO CLASH

New York Giants play a game here March 22.

Starting out in the opener at El Centro last Saturday against the San Francisco Seals, camped there, the Suds won the game with a football score, 14-7. The next day, last Sunday, at inauguration of the new Polo Grounds in the Village there was a turnout decision as the Seals ground out an 8-3 win. Tuesday was a field day for the visiting Seals as they again won on the local field 17-7.

IN WEDNESDAY'S GAME, a finished product was presented by the manager as the local team trounced the Seals 4-2 in a tight and well-played game. Aided by the stellar pitching of the two Jims—Wilson and Davis—and a clout over the fence, for a homer by Jack Albright, the Suds showed mid-season form.

Yesterday the two teams met in another exhibition game at El Centro.

The Rainiers, owned by Brewer Sick and under the supervision of Executive Vice President Torchy Torrence, have been given the all-out welcome of

Put Johnny Black On All-RCL Five

Johnny Black, Palm Springs high basketball guard, was named on the all Riverside County league first team picked by the Riverside Enterprise this week.

Two other Indian players made the list back of the first team, Charley Black, forward, and Eddie Weiss, center.

Others on the first team are Jimmy McDaniel, Coachella, and Paul Womack, Beaumont, forwards; Ronald Bailey, Coachella, center, and Henry Brown, Elsinore, guard.

Pastor in Finals Of Net Tourney

City open tennis championships are nearly completed. Bob Bennett, city recreation director, announced yesterday, with only one more event to be played off—finals in the men's singles.

Most of the finals were completed last week with Helen Littlefield of the Bank of America defeating Lorraine Seeger of Del Tahquitz hotel 6-0, 6-4 in the women's singles.

Mixed doubles were won by Harry Plymire and Maxine Gearhart as the defeated Chuck McDonald and Helen Littlefield 6-3, 7-5. In the men's doubles, winning team was Plymire and Charles Linn who beat Seamus Nunan and Roland Vaile 6-4, 6-0.

In the men's singles, Plymire will meet the Rev. James H. Blackstone for a fight for top honors probably today or tomorrow, it was said.

Dance to Open New Building

Inauguration of the new administration building at the Polo Grounds is set for Wednesday, March 22, with a giant Baseball dance to be sponsored by the Chamber of Commerce. This will follow the game held in the stadium that date between the Seattle Rainiers and the New York Giants. Music is to be by Pat Barbara and tickets are priced at $1.20. These are available from high school students or at the ticket booth at Palm Canyon and Andreas road.
